The Honorable Denny Rehberg
Member, House of Representatives
1201 Grand Avenue Suite #1
Billings, Montana 59102

Dear Congressman Rehberg:

This is in response to your facsimile transmission of January 29, 2008, concerning the application for presidential pardon of Mr. Jay Hould.

Mr. Hould's application is under consideration, and your facsimile transmission has been made part of his file. The processing time for a pardon application frequently is lengthy, and we are unable to advise any applicant when he or she may expect a decision on the clemency request. Please be assured, however, that Mr. Hould will be notified promptly when final action has been taken on his application. Thank you for your interest in this matter.

Sincerely,

Helen M. Bollwerk
Acting Pardon Attorney

NOTICE: LINDSON

Dear Congressman Rehberg,

I am an attorney in Helena. Some years ago I represented Jerry Strong, [REDACTED] who was convicted of Conspiracy to violate the Lacey Act by killing a mountain lion. Mr. Strong's felony conviction was upheld by the 9th Circuit Court. Following his conviction, Mr. Strong began employment with [REDACTED] and began work in Afghanistan, where he was severely injured—losing his thumb and fore finger of his left hand. In the interim, Mr. Strong applied to President Bush for a pardon. To date, no action has been taken. At 65 years of age, Mr. Strong would like—and as Viet Nam veteran and patriot—is deserving of consideration for that pardon, so as to restore his rights. I ask you to consider contacting the President in support of this application for Pardon. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Jackson:

Your electronic mail message dated March 27, 2007, to Congressman Denny Rehberg concerning the pending pardon application of Jerry Strong was forwarded by Congressman Rehberg to the White House. The White House now has referred your message to this office for response.

The processing time for a pardon application is lengthy, and we can give no assurance that final action will be taken by the President within a particular time frame. We will notify Mr. Strong promptly, however, when a final decision is made on his application. We appreciate your interest in this matter, and your message has been made a part of Mr. Strong's clemency case file.

Sincerely,

Roger C. Adarus
Pardon Attorney
